Database Administration

OIT provides a variety of database management services. Database administration activities include, but are not limited to, the following:

1. Creation, refresh and support of production and non-production databases
2. Review and application of database security and patches
3. Database backup and recovery
4. Business continuity and disaster recovery
5. Change management
6. Database monitoring and performance tuning
7. Requirements analysis and technical specifications
8. Risk assessment and management

OIT supports the following database management systems:

- SQL Server - Support and Hosting Services
- Oracle
- MySQL

Want to learn more?
Contact the OIT Service Desk at (949) 824-8500 to learn more about database administration.